MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

FROM: Richard Lehman
Vice Chairman, National Intelligence Council

SUBJECT: Trip to New York City

1. On 3 September, on the instructions of the DCI, I traveled to New York City to interview an NIO candidate. I left Washington DC at 1300 hours and arrived at La Guardia Airport at 1415. I did not, however, return to Washington, but continued on to Boston on personal business.

2. I was furnished a transportation receipt for the DC-New York flight, but did not use it because of congestion at the airport. Instead, I bought a ticket with my credit card from a machine. The receipt and the unused transportation receipt are attached.

3. I believe I can claim the fare to New York and back (two times $29 = $58) plus a taxi fare to and from La Guardia ($13 from La Guardia to ☐ Park Avenue and $12.50 back to the airport). I received $100 advance. My check for $16.50 is also attached.
